

THE FIGHT AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS.
POLICIES, EXCHANGES AND REPRESENTATIONS IN EUROPE AND
THE COLONIES, 1850s-1970s

Date and venue: 26 May 2026, Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Zagreb

Organizers: Michele Mioni (University of Venice) & Francesca Piana (University of Trento)

The Housing Misery in Zagreb in 1924 - Wagon Apartments (The Vladimir Čepulić Collection).
Croatian Museum of Medicine and Pharmacy. Inventory number HMMF-4625.

9:00-9:30 Introduction

9:30-11:00

CONTESTED VISIONS OF CARE : TUBERCULOSIS IN THE COLONIES

Discussant: Léa Delmaire

Isabel Amaral, Alexandra Esteves

Tuberculosis and Empire: Dialogues between Portugal and Africa (1899–1974)

Michele Mioni

Between Mutualism and Public Assistance: Anti-Tubercular Care in French Indochina (1906-1939)

Martin Gorsky

Apartheid, Tuberculosis and Making of Antimicrobial Resistance in Cape Town, South Africa (1950-1989)

11:00-11:15 Coffee break

11:15-12:45

HEALTH INFRASTRUCTURES: WORLDS OF CONTROL AND CARE

Discussant: Cansu Değirmenciöglü

Tilde Ribbentjärn

Constructing Social-hygiene Housing: Hygienic Ambitions and Social Governance in Early Twentieth-Century Sweden

Camelia Zavarache

Students, Tuberculosis and Nutrition. Summer Colonies in Secondary Schools in Interwar Romania

Francesca Piana

The Sanatorium of Sondalo: a Test-Case for Post-War Reconstruction in Italy (1945-1955)

12:45-13:45 Lunch

13:45-14:30 Guided visit to the exhibit “The Reverse Side of the City 100 Years Ago: Photographs from the Collections of Doctors Vladimir Čepulić and Lujo Thaller”

14:30-16:00

NON-STATE MOBILIZATIONS AND PLURAL EXPERTISE

Discussant: Martin Kuhar

Nikos Kastrinakis

When Tuberculosis Became a Workplace Hazard: Labour, Illness and Law in Interwar Greece

Alena Lochmannová

The Czechoslovak Anti-Tuberculosis League as a Mass Movement

Heini Hakosalo

Out of Harm's Way? Institutional Isolation of Infants as a Form of Tuberculosis Control in Mid-Twentieth Century Finland

16:00-16:15 Coffee break

16:15-17:15

SCALES OF CARE: MICRO-HISTORY AS A TEST-CASE

Discussant: Francesca Piana

Gabriele Ruiu, Lucia Pozzi, Michail Raftakis

Anti-Tuberculosis Policies and Their Impact on Mortality in Italy in Early 20th Century: A Regional Structural Break Analysis

Ivan Miskulin

Tuberculosis Prevention in Eastern Croatia: Public Health Infrastructure and Medical Interventions, 1850s-1970s

17:30-18:00

ROUND TABLE

The workshop is generously supported by the EuroHealthHist and GreatLeap Cost Actions and has been co-organized with the Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, under the auspices of the Department of Medical Sciences of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts.